

THE BALLROOM HOUSE

Instructor Spotlight:

David Eden!

David Eden has been an instructor with The Ballroom House since 2008 when he joined after returning to Kentucky from living and dance training in Florida. He even spent time in Argentina for specialized training in Argentine Tango! David enjoys work that allows his artistic side to flourish. This is why he started his very own paint company this year – Razor's Edge LLC, whose name was inspired by his favorite band AC/DC. He can be found listening to AC/DC just about anywhere, but in particular while in his cross fit gym (AKA, his basement!). It just so happens that October is David's favorite month – because every year he gets to dress up like a zombie with his wife Britta and dance in the THRILLER parade in downtown Lex. David is always adding his own flare to the studio and also his teaching. We are so thankful to have him here at The Ballroom House!

Hotlanta the Classic!

October 18th- 21st

We are very excited to be taking students to compete at 'Hotlanta the Classic'! Atlanta's hottest Dancesport Competition. Wish good luck to these Ballroom

Andrea Klein!

Meet your October Charity-

Autism Speaks

*Every time you check in with us on Facebook we will donate fifty cents to the charity of the month.*

Since its founding in 2005 Autism speaks has dedicated itself to bettering the lives of children and adults with ASD (Autism spectrum disorder). The foundation seeks to increase understanding and acceptance of people with autism, to be a catalyst for life enhancing research breakthroughs, to increase early childhood screening and timely interventions, to improve the transition from child to adult in persons with ASD, and also ensure access to reliable information regarding ASD. Their goals manifest in different ways, from research to reaching out to individual families with resources for a child with ASD.
